Subject: Final Stormwater Loading Methods Report

EPA -

The Final Stormwater Loading Methods Report has been posted to the EPA side of the LWG Portal at the following location.

PHCP Files | Documents Under Review | 2011-04-15_Stormwater Loading Methods Report

This report is a revision to the Final Stormwater Loading Methods report submitted in January and addresses EPA comments on the Stormwater Loading Calculation Methods report received March 2, 2011.

Note that the file is not fully tagged to EPA requirements--there were several figures that could not be tagged without affecting the layout/content, but all of the other components have been tagged to the fullest extent possible. While the whole document was tagged to the extent possible, when you look at the document properties, it appears that the whole document has not been tagged.

Please contact me with any questions.

Amanda Shellenberger, P.E.
